- Marital or civil partnership status
- Having or not having dependants
- Religious belief or political opinion
- Race (including colour, nationality or ethnicity)
- Disability
- Sexual orientation
- Age

MOBC is opposed to all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination. All Club members and volunteers who work with us will be treated fairly and will not be discriminated against on any of the above grounds.

Commitments

MOBC is committed to:

- Promoting equality of opportunity for all persons.
- Promoting an enjoyable sporting environment in which all persons are treated with respect.
- Preventing occurrences of unlawful direct discrimination, indirect discrimination, harassment and victimisation.
- Fulfilling our legal obligations under the Equality and Diversity legislation and associated codes of practice.

- Treating all breaches of this policy as misconduct which will be dealt with through the Club's normal procedures.

This policy will be made available to all Club members and those working for the Club through publication on the Club website and in writing on the notice board in the Clubhouse

Implementation

The MOBC Management Committee has a specific responsibility for the effective implementation of this policy. All our Club members are expected to abide by the policy and help create the equal opportunities environment, which is its objective.

In order to implement this policy the MOBC Management Committee shall:

- Communicate the policy widely within the Club.

MOBC members who believe that they have suffered any form of discrimination, harassment or victimisation are entitled to raise the matter through the agreed Club procedures. All complaints of discrimination will be dealt with seriously, promptly and confidentially. Every effort will be made to ensure that those who make complaints will not be victimised. Any such victimisation will result in disciplinary action. The Market Overton Bowls Club Complaints and Disciplinary Procedure is detailed in Annex B [page 6].

ANNEX B – COMPLAINTS AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

Making a Complaint

All members have the right to complain: the Club will take all complaints seriously. No member should be harassed, bullied or put at a disadvantage because of making a complaint. The Club will treat complaints as confidentially as possible

If a member has a complaint, it is often best to start by having a conversation with a member of the Management Committee, who may be able to help to solve the problem informally.

If the complaint needs to be looked into further, the complainant will normally be asked to put the complaint in writing, providing as much detail as possible. This should be given to the Secretary. The complaint will then be investigated in accordance with the Club's Complaints and Disciplinary Procedure.

The complainant will be given the details of a person who will be their point of contact at the Club. That person will make sure that the complainant understands the process and will answer any questions or concerns that the complainant may have. The complainant will be given regular updates on the progress of the complaint.

Disciplinary Matters General

Disciplinary matters, applying to Market Overton Bowls Club, (hereinafter referred to as the Club), will be dealt with by Executive Committee of the Club in the first instance followed, where necessary, by the full Management Committee and, if appointed, a Disciplinary Committee. All members of the Club shall agree to comply fully with this code of conduct.

Disciplinary action against any Club member, including expulsion, may be taken for offences of misconduct or breach of the Club's rules. However, it is recognised and accepted that every member:

- Has the right to expect fair and consistent treatment.
- Has the right to adequate notice from the Club.
- Has the right to appeal against the Club Secretary's judgement or Disciplinary Committee's decision.
- Has the right to representation.
- No member will be expelled for the first breach of Club's rules except in cases of "gross misconduct". However, all disciplinary actions taken by Market Overton Bowls Club will be duly recorded and placed on file for reference at a future date.

Offences Leading to Disciplinary Action

The actions by members, noted below, may be interpreted by the Executive Committee to fall within this Code. However, the lists are not to be considered as covering all possible offences.

"Misconduct" is the carrying out of an offence considered to be of a minor nature (unless frequently repeated) and will normally incur either a verbal warning, a written warning or both from the Executive Committee, together with a demand for full and appropriate corrective action. Examples of misconduct include: -

- Discourteous, crude or offensive behaviour at games, training sessions or organised Club events.
- Conduct of an unsafe nature.
- Reckless disregard for equipment or property.
- Refusal to carry out reasonable instructions issued by event officials or organisers.
- Any other actions of similar gravity to the above, at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Repetition of the above offences, or failure to comply with any demands made in writing by the Executive Committee, may result in further action by the Executive Committee involving a disciplinary hearing.

“Serious Misconduct” is the carrying out of an offence of such gravity that in the opinion of the Executive Committee it warrants a Market Overton Bowls Club disciplinary hearing. Examples of offences, which may be considered as serious misconduct, include: -

- Misconduct offences listed above, if especially grave or repeated.
- Deliberate or consistent breaches of Club rules.
- Any attempt to achieve gains or advantage over others by unfair or unscrupulous means.
- Theft or misappropriation.
- Use of threatening or abusive behaviour
- Malicious interference with equipment or property.
- Actions which show disregard for the safety of others or themselves
- Any other action which, in the opinion of the Club Officers, may bring the sport or Market Overton Bowls Club into disrepute, or which left unpunished, may result in the detriment of the Club or its members.

“Gross Misconduct” is action of such seriousness that the Executive Committee will require the immediate expulsion of the offender from the Club. The Executive Committee may, by means of an executive decision, summarily expel such an offender without invoking a disciplinary hearing. The expelled member will have the right to a disciplinary hearing as soon as this can be arranged but will remain expelled until and unless such a hearing overturns the executive decision. Examples of gross misconduct are:

- Physical violence towards other persons at a Club event or related activity, including serious threatening, intimidating or forceful behaviour.
- Reckless disregard of safety and basic safety rules.
- Being convicted of criminal offences involving physical violence or abuse.
- Other acts that are considered to be of an extremely serious nature carried out against the Club, its members or any other party.

*Child Protection – if the matter relates to a child protection issue, follow the child protection procedures for dealing with a complaint, then follow disciplinary procedure after outcome has been reached. If in doubt contact the local social services duty team for advice on how to deal with the complaint and the offender. The Market Overton Bowls Club Safeguarding Procedure is detailed in Annex C [page 10].

Disciplinary Procedure

On receipt of a written complaint from either a Club member, another team within the sport, the league/match organisers or any other party, the Executive Committee, with advice from a Legal Advisor where necessary, will decide whether the complaint falls within the scope of this disciplinary code. If, in their opinion it does, then the Executive Committee will decide as to the type of offence listed above.

If the offence is considered to be one of simple misconduct, the Club Secretary, after consultation with the Executive Committee, will write to the offender with a formal written warning including the demand for an apology or other corrective action they may deem appropriate.

A disciplinary file will be opened by the Executive Committee in which will be placed copies and records of the original complaint, together with the written warning and any other correspondence.

The action outlined above will normally finalise the process unless any of the parties involved object strongly to the Executive Committee's decision, in which case they may appeal directly to the Executive Committee for a final decision.

Should the complaint be considered by the Executive Committee as one of serious or gross misconduct, then the following procedure is to be implemented: -

- The Executive Committee will appoint an Investigating Officer who will research evidence presented and, if possible, will obtain further written evidence and witness statements.
- If necessary the Investigating Officer will consult all relevant witnesses for supportive evidence.
- Advise the complainant that, if a disciplinary hearing is called, then the complainant and all relevant witnesses will be obliged to attend and give evidence. (Non-attendance at a hearing will only be allowed in extenuating circumstances, i.e. Ill health, threat of violence or intimidation etc). In such circumstances/instances a sworn declaration must be submitted to the Executive Committee.
- Contact the subject of the complaint to advise of the official complaint and request the member to submit a written statement of events
- In cases of disputes of a personal nature, the Executive Committee will attempt to resolve the situation amicably and to the mutual satisfaction of the parties concerned.
- If settlement cannot be agreed between the parties, or if the offence merits it, then a disciplinary hearing will be arranged as soon as possible
- Contact the Club's Legal Advisor if required and supply copies of all evidence.
- Notify all parties of the Disciplinary Hearing date and ensure the parties have all relevant copies of paperwork in good time prior to the hearing.

Disciplinary Hearing

- A disciplinary committee will be appointed which will comprise:
Three members of the Management Committee and the Club Secretary who will be responsible for administration
- The Club will nominate a member, usually the Investigating Officer, to present the case.
- All witnesses to be interviewed and all written evidence is to be reviewed at the hearing.
- No witnesses or statements are to be introduced at the hearing without prior notice and copies of all written evidence produced for consideration prior to the hearing, is to be made available in advance to all parties involved.
- The Disciplinary Committee may adjourn the hearing to allow further evidence to be referred to if it considers it fair to do so.
- After the Disciplinary Committee has reached a decision, the subject of the complaint is to be notified in writing of such decision and informed of any penalties within 7 days of the decision being reached; penalties will be effective from the date of the decision.

Penalties

Following the hearing, the Disciplinary Committee may apply such penalties, as it deems appropriate, including temporary or permanent expulsion of the offender from the Club; such penalties are to be implemented immediately, notwithstanding the possibility of an appeal.

The Club will, in all cases, comply with the requirements of the National guidelines and policies dealing with child protection, including immediate notification of the police where required.

Appeals

If an appeal against the decision or penalty is to be made then the offender must make written notice of that appeal to the Club Secretary, within 28 days of being notified of the decision. No appeal will be considered after that period has elapsed. The offender must give full written grounds for the appeal, stating exactly what is being appealed against and the reasons for this.

An appeal hearing will be convened as soon as practicable and will consist of an Appeal Committee made up of

a) Club Chairman, a member of the Executive or Management Committee who did not take part in the first hearing plus one other full Club member or
b) if there is any conflict of interest then the Executive/Management Committee may invite officer/s from another Bowls Club to take part

The Club Secretary will also attend any Appeal Committee and be responsible for administration..

The Appeal Committee shall have power to amend or revoke any decision made at the previous disciplinary hearing.

The decision of the Appeal Committee is final and binding on the parties and not subject to further appeal.
